Dear Mr. Weisberg:

I am very sorry that you are so disappointed with PW's performance on your book, "Whitewash IV." I regret to inform you that, since I never received a copy of the book, or a release with the information I requested in my letter of October 15, I was not able to write any kind of news note about it. If the book has not been published yet, we still could run a note about it. Otherwise, please make sure that we receive information about your next book at least 10 weeks before publication date. Again, it is not necessary for me to see the actual book; Albert Johnston, however, would need either galleys or a book at least 10 weeks before publication date.

Sincerely,

Mildred Sola Neely
